THE COYLE MAN

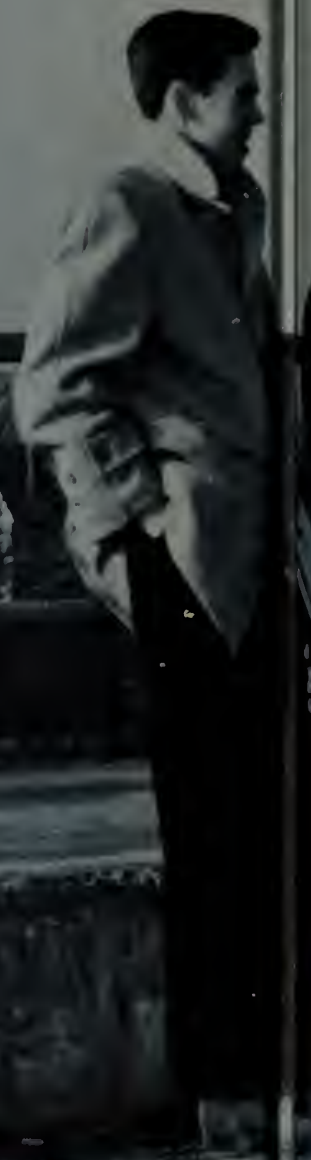

The Coyle man is an exemplar of the Christian concept of life. Primarily concerned with his soul's welfare, he is a man of prayer. He attends the Sacraments weekly, practices virtue daily, and has a manly piety which exercises itself mainly toward the Blessed Sacrament and Our Lady. Catholic Action is prominent in his life, which achieves its greatest good through example, for the Coyle man is clean in mind, speech, and action.

Intellectual honesty is practiced by the Coyle man, for his whole life is guided by principle. He strives to penetrate, as far as he can, the Truth that is God, for he recognizes the fact that love of God comes with knowledge of Him. All his study is devoted to this seeking after Truth and to a preparation for the niche he is to occupy in life according to the Eternal Plan.

Since man is composed of soul and body, the Coyle man takes proper care of his body, for God has given it to him. He keeps his body clean and engages in some sport or exercise to maintain good health and train himself in the qualities of good sportsmanship.

Socially the Coyle man is always a gentleman. He cultivates genuine friendships with good companions. He is a worthwhile citizen who strives to promote the common good by serving his God, his country and his community.

In a word, a man of faith and honesty, of strength of character through self-mastery, of respect for the Christian family and lawful authority, of leadership in the pursuit of good . . . that is a Coyle man.

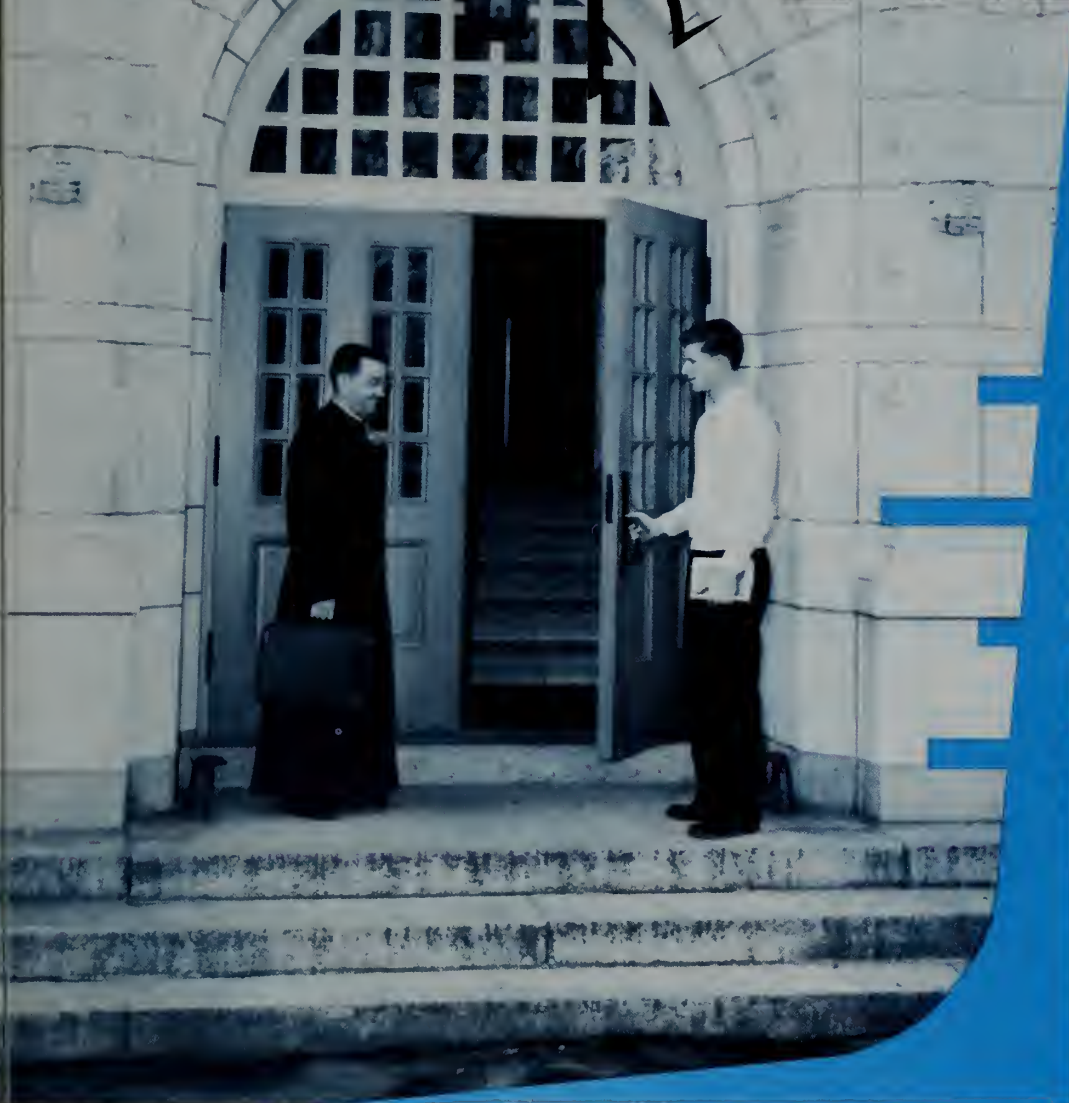

Explanation of the Cover design

Education at Coyle—as in all Catholic schools—is Christ-centered. The Chi-rho, a combination of the Greek letters CH and R in the form of a cross symbolizes the name Christ, the focal-point of Catholic education.

FOREWORD

This year, like any other year at Coyle High, has been crammed full of activities of all sorts. We imagine that in the opinion of the Brothers and lay teachers this has been an average year with nothing exceptional happening and with no specific memories. However, to us students it is much more than that; it is something wonderful and unforgettable. We have lived it with its difficulties and joys, and from it we have collected memories that will always be very much a part of us. With camera and pen we have tried to capture these memories for you and to assemble them in a natural, life-like manner.

The Review staff, like any other yearbook staff, has attempted to create a good book, a different book, and still stay on schedule. They have been beset with the headaches that only a yearbook staff can appreciate. The staff's reward is the sight of the completed book and the joy that it will bring to Coyle men everywhere.

DEDICATION

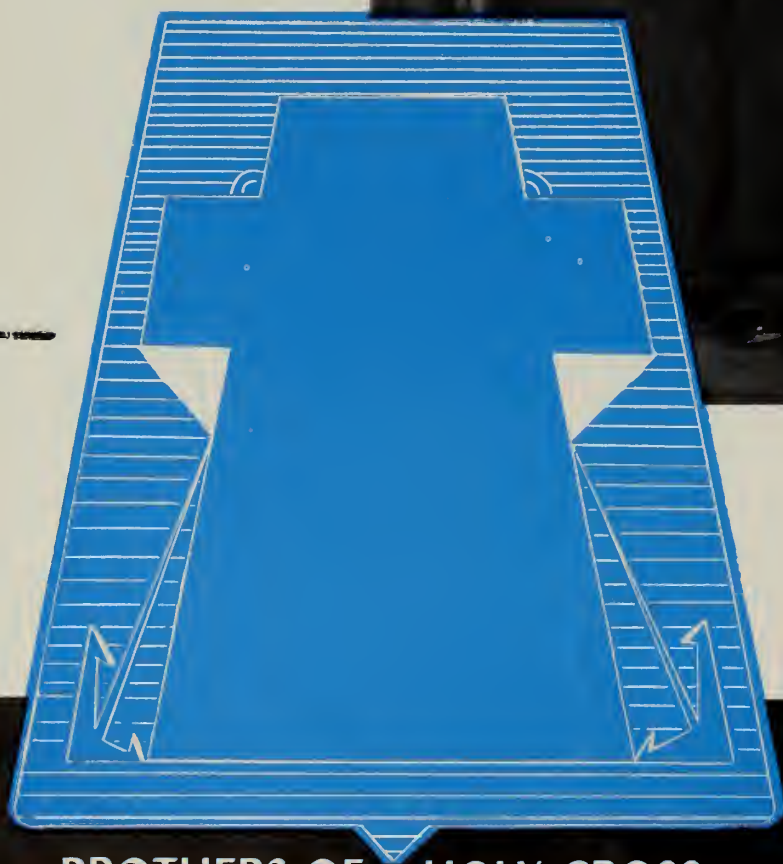

In grateful appreciation of the continued assistance and interest in our school of the Coyle Mothers — past and present, we dedicate our yearbook.

May Mary, the Universal Mother, bless them for their generosity and sacrifice on our behalf.

ADMINISTRATION A

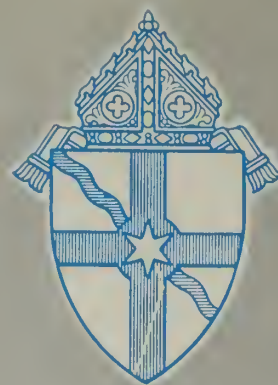

Criticism and reaction of modern teens are so brutally yet disarmingly frank, there's no teaching that will keep one more humble than the teaching of youth. But their appreciation is so very sincere and their praise so devoid of adult flattery that, when it does come—spontaneous, unrehearsed, uncalculating—is one of the deepest human joys of the Brotherhood. And because the stakes are so high in terms of eternity, there's no type of work more suited to draw a Brother closer to God, make him so completely dependent on divine assistance and thus deepen the roots of his own spiritual life than working with and for today's teen-agers. It is because of this the Brothers conduct high schools.

Coyle Life

To recreate pictorially all the events of this school year is well nigh impossible within the limited confines of this book. Then, too, our individual memories and appreciation of life at Coyle will naturally run along separate lines of thought. We all have benefited—more or less—according to the amount of personal interest given to study, school activities and intellectual development. The year's contribution to our

But one thing is sure; not one of us knows Coyle intellectually or morally poorer than when he came in September. For this we are thankful the grace of God and our teachers "religiosa" and lay for giving us the best they had.

What follows, then, is our attempt to present a selection of pictures which depict scenes indicative of Coyle life. In the years that follow, we hope you will return often to these pages. May they serve as a reminder of what was done for us at Coyle and—more important—what we did here at Coyle.

A SILVER JUBILEE

On August 16, Brother Christian observes the twenty-fifth anniversary of his profession of vows in the Congregation of Holy Cross. In the course of these years he has seen service at Cathedral High School, Indianapolis, Indiana, from 1936 to 1944; Central Catholic High School, Monroe, Michigan, from 1944 to 1950; and Vincentian Institute, Albany, New York, 1950 to 1955. In these last two schools Brother served as principal. Completing his undergraduate and graduate work at the University of Notre Dame, Brother has also done graduate work at Fordham University and the Catholic University of America.

On this happy occasion of his silver jubilee as a Brother of Holy Cross, we, the students and faculty, wish to convey our congratulations and best wishes. May God grant him many more fruitful years in the cause of Catholic education and Holy Cross.

Ad multos annos, Brother!

A few years ago in a noteworthy series of articles concerning the attitude of Catholics toward politics, the brilliant young lay apostle, John Cogley, said, "The Catholic who thinks that politics is beneath his dignity is not worthy of being a Catholic." Similarly, we feel that a non-thinking Catholic student is not worthy of being a Catholic. Therefore, it is the primary aim of the Religious Bulletin at Coyle High School to stimulate thought about topics which the school and faculty sense as being worthy of current interest to their students as Catholics. The Religious Bulletin is distributed weekly during religion classes and the subject matter of the bulletin is discussed.

A secondary reason for the existence of the bulletin (since the students are encouraged to bring it home) is to provide parents and pastors with some tangible statement of the Catholic thinking which the school is currently drawing to the attention of their sons.
From its inception the bulletin was placed under the patronage of Saint Joseph, the spiritual patron of the Brothers of Holy Cross.

The most deceptive angle of this consideration is that sin is not a part of the picture. When one lists the three common reasons which prevent one from receiving Christ: 1) mortal sin, 2) failure to observe the prescribed fast, and
3) religious indifference - then one can see that the third is the most deadly, and the lack of will power in observing and leads to it.

It is positively. Make the effort to be a regular weekly communicant? You excuse; you belong to an enlightened generation. Weekly communion is important to your family life, your parish community, and the moral stamina of your country and country. Isn't that what we believe?

BROTHER ANDRE, C.S.C.

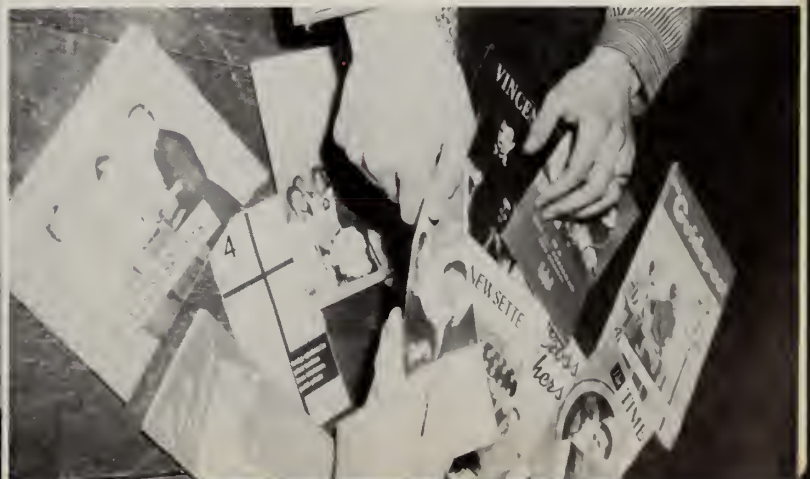

Brother Thomas, moderator, with guest speaker Brother Peter Nolasco Cleary, C.S.C., E. Pakistan missionary and Coyle alumnus.

THE ANDRE CLUB

The Andre Club, under the capable direction of Brother Thomas, is an organization for those students interested in a possible religious vocation to the priesthood and Brotherhood.

Talks on the life and work of the priestly and religious vocation by Brother Thomas are supplemented with literature to provide a fuller understanding and appreciation of these high vocations.

From time to time, trips are organized to seminaries and religious houses to provide first-hand contact with the life.

Time out . . . for God

The annual retreat, coming at the first three days of Holy Week, affords an excellent opportunity for self-appraisal and reflection on religious truths. The conferences, recitative Masses, question periods and time allotted for serious reading play a big part in providing meaningful significance to our student life at Coyle. To pray well, study well and play well is our reason for being at Coyle.

Man is incomplete unless he knows God; man's work is undone unless he serves God.

"If a man stands for nothing, he will fall for anything."

VOCATION DAY MASS

"If we think of God's plan for His Church, we might liken it to a vast mosaic. Seen close at hand the design of a mosaic is not always clear, and what is obvious is the number of pieces of glass of different colors and of every shape and size that go to make it up. Seen at a distance, only the design and the glowing color attract the eye. So in the Church of God, the glory that will be finally revealed is not always clear in its day to day activity. We see problems and persecutions, difficulties and dangers, and we see all the differing members who are joined together in the Church. Seen at the perspective of final judgment the Bride of Christ will be of unsurpassed beauty, and each of the apparently plain pieces will have made its contribution to this.

A priest, a Brother, or a sister may seem plain or his task plain. But the people and the tasks are completely necessary to the building up of the Church of our age and the church of our age is the transmitter to future ages of all that has gone before, since through the Crucifixion Christ became our atonement to God."

Archbishop Richard J.
Cushing, D.D.

The May Vocation Day Mass was held at St. Mary's Church, Taunton. Bishop Connolly was in attendance and the sermon was given by Father John E. Boyd.

YOUNG CHRISTIAN STUDENTS

Young Christian students, a newly organized activity at Coyle, has for its chief object to train students in realizing that the future of the Church depends in a great measure on the lay person. Pope Pius XII has frequently stressed the importance of Catholic Action among the lay people. It is the layman that comes in daily contact with others both in the Faith and out of the Faith. How the Catholic or Christian acts will determine whether or not he will influence his companions' lives for the better or for the worse. By reading the life of Christ in the Gospels and studying how the God-Man acted, the members decide how they should act and what they could do to improve their manner of living. The Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores each have a "cell" composed of seven or eight members. The cell meets every two weeks to read and discuss the topic for discussion and the Gospel narrative related to the topic. After seeing how Christ acted and deciding how they should act, the members plan means and ways of acting according to the Gospel Model. External works that would help increase the spiritual lives of the student body are also within the scope of the Y.C.S. Any student who is desirous of becoming a lay apostle for Christ by improving his daily living chiefly through spiritual reading of the Holy Scripture and other inspiring books is welcome to become a member of the Y.C.S.

LIBRARY STAFF

The smooth operation of the Coyle Library is, to a great degree, accomplished by this volunteer group, which assists in all phases of library work under the direction of Brother Thomas, C.S.C.

Processing new books, repairing old ones, binding magazines and keeping the stacks in order make up the bulk of their work.

Any upperclassman interested in the inner workings of a library is invited to join this staff.

SCIENCE CLUB

In endeavoring to keep pace with the modern concepts in the field of science, the Coyle Science Club has given special attention to many areas of the sciences. Activities ranging from simple laboratory or field problems, through experiments with integrated steps and controlled procedures and on to larger projects involving extended club activity. All activities were carefully selected to provide a background of concrete experiences for members of wide differences in ability and interests.

The success of the Science Club during the past year has been due to the undivided interest of all the members, their enthusiasm, their time and their energy. All finances were taken care of by the club dues and many generous contributors.

MAGAZINE DRIVE

— 1956 —

The magazine drive for 1956 was under the direction of Brother Quentin, C.S.C., and his very capable slide-rule assistant, Frank Norton. Though falling short of its lofty goal of $5,000 in sales, the drive made it possible to purchase a set of portable basketball backboards that many boys are making use of before and after school and during the lunch periods. Individual honors for high salesman went for the third year in a row to Junior, Louis McAdams with $154 in sales. Freshmen William Contreras and Joseph Callaghan also topped the $100 mark with $119 and $101 respectively. Brother Michel's homeroom with its $650 and 183% quota topped all the rooms and these boys are looking forward to their trip to Fenway Park for a Red Sox game in the spring.

Under the direction of Brother Eldred, C.S.C., the Band of '57 more than fulfilled the high standards that have come to be expected from their past performances.

The band climaxed its season with the annual Spring Concert. In addition they added color and excitement to the football games, pep rallies and assemblies. Commencement exercises closed a full season of traditional good music and service to Coyle.

THE SPRING CONCERT

Under the sensitive hand of Brother Eldred, the combined band and Glee Club gave a joint concert on the evenings of May 7th, 8th, and 9th.

Selections ranging from the semi-classical "The Chocolate Soldier" to Beethoven's "Victory Overture," were performed with polish and versatility. With the stirring strains of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," and amid a tumultuous applause, the Coyle music men brought down the curtain on another successful season.

"A BOY NAMED BEULAH"

A three-act play by Jay Tobias and under the direction of Brother Philip, C.S.C., was one of the highlights of the first semester. The major roles were played by F. Fitzsimmons, J. Sparks, R. Bishop, J. Lariviere, W. Devereaux, R. McMorro, R. Rebello, and D. Roach.

St. Mary's High School's D. Sullivan, J. Bouchard, I. Miller, C. Tonry, J. Benoit, E. Cayer, P. Cooper, and K. Corrigan.

In addition to providing us with a first-rate comedy, the play introduced to Coyle the character "Tongo," who was so overwhelmed at his favorable reception that he attached himself to the football team as their mascot.

Under the leadership of Brother John, C.S.C., and to the theme of Henry Cottrell and his orchestra, the Junior Class successfully put on their annual class dance. Among the many embellishments were a huge chandelier, snowflake designs, snowmen with top hats and canes and other winter scenes.

But the complete story of the Prom could not possibly be told here. The exciting feeling of the Juniors, knowing that this was THEIR dance, that they helped to make it, or the thrill of the student's first prom can never effectively be put into words. Nor can the enjoyment and the sense of relaxation truly be expressed. The memories can always be recalled that went with the decorations that were taken down from the hall as souvenirs. Many of the evening's highlights are lacking here, but the big thing that should be mentioned is—the simplicity of the evening—the simplicity of the quiet pleasures of the Coyle High School Junior Prom.

SENIOR PROM

The Senior Prom of 1956 will be remembered by many as just another dance, but to those seniors who attended the ball it was a memorable evening that will always bring back the final highlight of their high school days. There was a new atmosphere about the school and one could tell that this was one of those special, few nights that held a feeling of splendor and the excitement of being at such a great event.

The auditorium was decorated very beautifully to the theme of "In A Little Spanish Town" with adorning balconies, curtains, and many ornamented props. The Seniors and their escorts danced to the music of Lene Page and his orchestra and were delighted with his intermission portrayal of the development of Modern Jazz.

The Decoration Committee included D. Ricketts, Chairman; J. Antosca, F. Donahue, J. Walsh, P. Corr, D. Clemmey, R. Almedia, W. Gallagher, and F. Gasson. G. Fredenburg was in charge of the Entertainment Committee, and C. Guillette headed the handling of programs and tickets.

The Junior Prom

The Christmas season is upon us again and with it brings the Junior Prom. The gala event has been set for December twenty-sixth. The time of the dance is scheduled from 8:00 to 11:30 P. M. with music provided by Henry Cottrell.

Brother John, C.S.C. who has worked hard with the various members of the prom committees hopes for a good turnout for this affair. I am not at liberty to mention the theme of the prom but I will say this, if you miss this event you will be missing one of the big social events of the year. As an added attraction the mothers and fathers of the students who are going to attend the prom will drop in and

THE WARRIOR

Improvement implies change and change there was aplenty this year. At mid-year the format and size was changed, enabling inclusion of more news, pictures and features. Another first was the relocation of the paper's office to the newly re-decorated offices in the Annex.

Under the direction of Brother Philip, C.S.C., The Warrior, like a fine wine and a cherished briar, improves with age.

The staff of Warrior is hopeful that the students will like their re-vamped Warrior, and from every indication, they will have no reason to be disappointed.

Co-Editors R. McMorrow and B. McManus optimistically set to work on another edition.

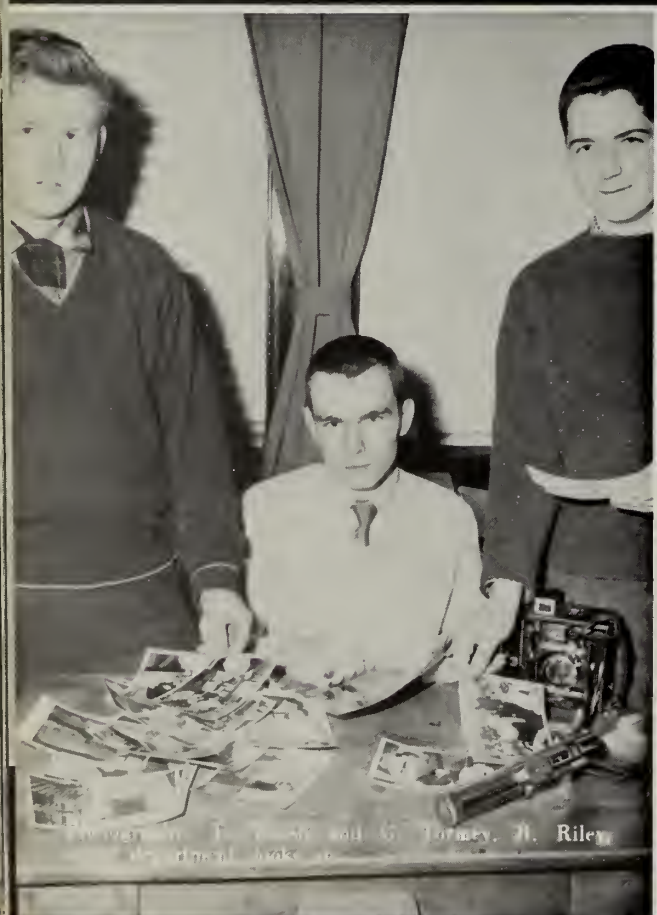

REVIEW STAFF

These pages are essentially for the purpose of rewarding in some way the sincere efforts of those who have contributed in a great measure to any success the REVIEW may enjoy. Without someone to carry out the huge amounts of detail work necessary in such a publication it would be impossible for us to assemble this book.

This year's REVIEW is—as in those of the past—essentially a book by the students. To these Coylemen who have worked so faithfully, we wish to take this opportunity of publicly thanking them for all they have done in helping us assemble a book for you that will in years to come, recall the memories of this past year.

DURFEE PEP RALLY ASSEMBLY

The Fall River boys, filled with enthusiasm, staged their pep rally prior to the Coyle-Durfee football game. The assembly was filled with surprises, including a visit by "Tongo," and a special appearance of "The Libber." The spirit generated by the student gathering spilled out onto Hopewell Park the next day, when the Warrior football squad, playing a tremendous game, went down to defeat by two touchdowns at the hands of a highly favored Durfee.

THE THANKSGIVING-TAUNTON GAME ASSEMBLY

The big game of the year was responsible for the biggest rally of the year. The show got off with a comic opera, "Trial By Jury" (with apologies to Gilbert and Sullivan) staged by the Glee Club. The Taunton football team was sentenced to be beaten by Coyle. "Tongo" made another appearance, as well as "The Little Warrior." The Three Shaves and a Haircut worked Taunton into a lather with their antics. Two varsity starters, Brezinski and Turkalo, were included in a trio which also performed. The rally must have helped in some way, for the next day the Warriors beat Taunton 12-7.

THE CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

Christmas came early to the Coyle students when they were treated to the annual Christmas Assembly. Gifts, including those long awaited football and band sweaters, were presented. Ted "Claus" Walsh presented gifts ranging from crutches to crib sheets to cold tablets to the "lucky" students. Musical selections were presented by the band in keeping with the tone of the festive occasion and group singing closed out the last rally of '56.

FOOTBALL

Three returning lettermen, all Juniors, were the only experienced footballers who reported to Coach Jim Burns when football practice began last fall. County arm-chair coaches, noting that the Warrior squad was composed mainly of Sophomores and Juniors—there were only three Seniors on the squad—jumped to the fast conclusion that the most this year's Coyle team would gain would be experience. The young squad, dubbed by many as the "Green and Gold" instead of the Blue and Gold, picked up experience quickly and by the middle of the season they had proved themselves ready to do battle with the best elevens in the County. The Warriors collected five wins during the course of the season while bowing four times—a winning season in a building year—a feat foretold only by the most loyal Coyle supporters.

This year's football story does not end here, it will go on for the next three years at least. Every point which was scored by the Warriors was tallied by underclassmen. Two touchdowns were the most any team scored against the Warrior defense, and the Warrior Freshman team came through with an undefeated season. Truly the potentialities are great. The coming seasons hold great promise. All that is needed to reap rich rewards in the near future is the kind of spirit which the Warriors exhibited on Thanksgiving Day when, in the face of disaster, they came from behind to nip Taunton High and climax an unexpectedly successful season. Coyle spirit and hard work are necessary if the Warriors hope to chalk up a successful campaign next year, the school's Silver Anniversary Year.

"To the winners belong the spoils" . . .

The Lions Club Trophy, won by the Warriors on Thanksgiving day, is admired by Brother Michel and Coach Burns. Three successive wins are needed for permanent possession. This is Coyle's first. In the in-town series the Blue and Gold have claimed two of the trophies, while the Herringtownners have clinched one.

Barnstable 0-0-0-7-7

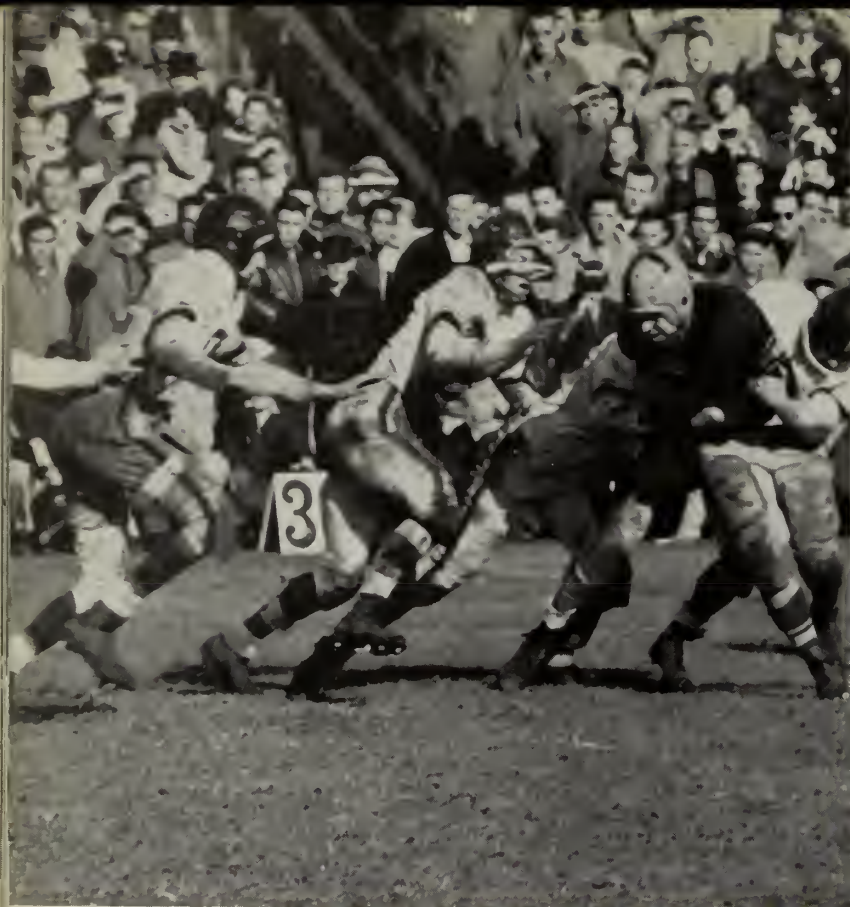

Barnstable's Jim Alymer dashed 45 yards around the Coyle right end, as the Cape Codders handed a green as grass Coyle Varsity their first loss of the year, 7-0. The game, played at Hopewell park, proved to be a loose contest, with both elevens hamstrung by fumbles. The much outweighed and inexperienced Warriors were only minutes away from what would have been a shocker of a scoreless tie, when a momentary defensive lapse, following a Coyle fumble, set up the TD. Although Coyle never showed any offensive punch in the contest, the defense play was surprisingly good. With their backs to the wall on many occasions, the Warriors showed that they had the guts to hit just as hard as their opponents, a fact which surprised highly favored opponents all season long.

Coyle 0-0-6-0-6

Stoughton 7-0-0-7-14

Anyone who claimed that the Warriors didn't get their share of breaks throughout the season need only look as far as this game to see why. The Blue and Gold eleven were handed chance after chance to cop their first win of the year, but all they and fate could do was not enough. The first Coyle touchdown of the year came in the third period when Bob Freccero swept 24 yards around end for the score. Although the Warriors failed to capitalize on a number of breaks, their overall game was much improved over that played a week earlier, and the idea was beginning to be tossed around that here was a team worth watching.

Coyle 7-0-6-0-13

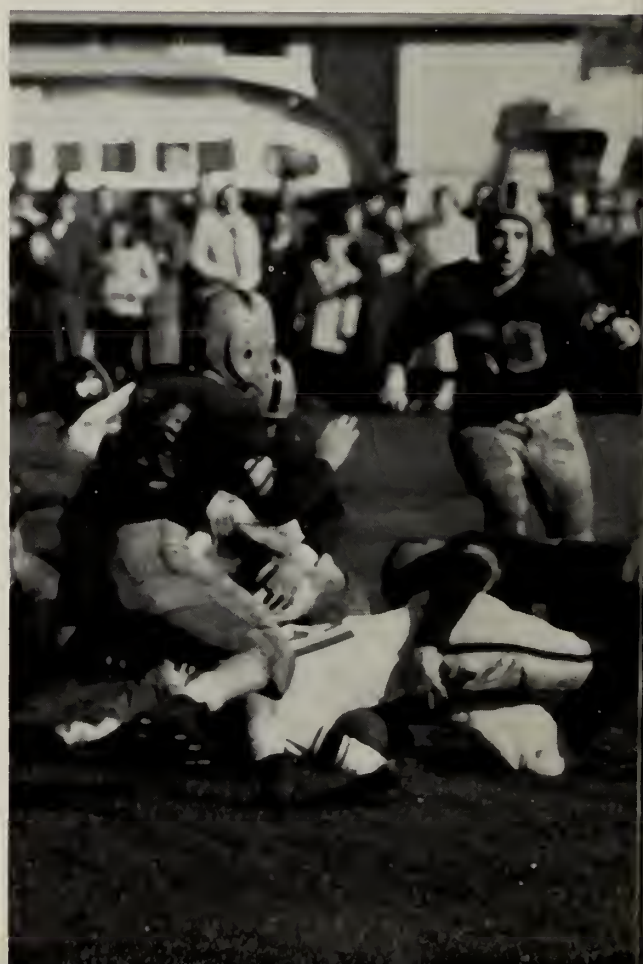

New Bedford 0-0-0-6-6

After two close losing contests, the victory hungry Warriors upset New Bedford to post their first decision of the year. The Whalers, undefeated in two games, met their match on Hopewell Park as Steve Turkalo and Ed Boyle tallied six-pointers. Pete Gazzola booted the seventh point. The Warrior line hit their stride in this contest with the second touchdown coming as a result of a blocked Crimson punt. A 53-yard sustained drive was capped with success, as Freccero tossed an aerial to Turkalo which was good for 17 yards and a TD. Gazzola added the point and Ed Boyle iced the contest with a 12-yard dash around the Crimson left end. New Bedford averted a shut-out when, with seconds remaining in the contest, Gus Pimental snared a pass in the Warrior end zone. Sights were now set upon the next game when the Warriors were to be entertained by Attleboro.

Coyle 0-0-7-6-13

Attleboro 6-0-0-0-6

Attleboro fans were shocked severely twice on the afternoon of the Coyle game. Their first shock came when an underdog—winless Attleboro eleven—charged up and down the gridiron in the first half to lead at the midway point 6-0. Their second came in the second half when the Coyle club, hopelessly outclassed and overconfident in the first two periods, settled down to business and struck twice for touchdowns to revenge a hard-fought defeat handed them last year. A Coyle fumble on their own 11 set up the Jeweler's touchdown midway through the initial period. The score loomed bigger and bigger in view of Attleboro's spirited play until, in the opening minutes of the third period, Freccero drove through the middle for the equalizer. Gazzola booted the winning point. Two key plays set up the score to revitalize the Warrior's sagging spirits. The most spectacular running play of the season was pulled off in the final period when Daley charged right through the middle of the Attleboro line and electrified the crowd with a 59-yard touchdown dash, insured with a perfectly thrown block on Pete DeLutis at the 10 by Ed Boyle.

Coyle 7-7-0-6-20
North Attleboro 6-0-7-0-13

The Warriors best played game of the season was turned in when they met the Red Rocketeers at Hopewell Park. The Red scored their first T.D. with shocking ease. After recovering a Coyle fumble. North scored on the first play. With the game less than a minute old, Jack Valade dashed 35 yards for the tally. Later in the period, Tony Correia came in to punt, but instead of booting, he tossed a 25-yard T.D. pass to Turkalo, who scored the tying points. Coyle scored again in the second stanza on the longest pass play of the season. After Dorsey grabbed a loose North fumble. Freccero, on first down passed to Daly, who completed the 65-yard play by going over untouched. Gazzola booted per order but North roared right back to within a point on a third period four-yard rush and extra point. Daly set up the third Coyle touchdown with a 36-yard dash to the North 17, from where Ed Boyle took over and scored on the next play.

Coyle 7-8-6-6-27

The Warriors collected their fourth win in a row as they belted crippled Vocational 27-0. Voke, hampered by injuries and inexperience, could offer no challenges for the fast improving Coyle club, although they tried with noteworthy spirit. Freccero went over from one yard out and a first period touchdown. Gazzola got the point to set the Warriors off and running. The score was upped to 13-0 as Freccero pitched to Daly on a 28-yard scoring play. Gazzola blocked a Voke punt and the resulting safety accounted for the 14th and 15th Coyle points. Freccero scored a third touchdown of the morning as he circled across 24 yards of the gridiron to pay dirt. The final points of the massacre were marked up when Dave Sullivan grabbed a misguided Artisan aerial and returned it 34 yards across the Voke goal line.

The win was a costly one for the Warriors, for Frank O'Boy had to be helped off the field with a knee injury which kept him sidelined until the Taunton game. The senior lineman was just one of the Coyle forward wall which turned in a bone-crushing account of its tussle.

Fairhaven 0-7-6-0-13

Rough, tough Fairhaven had all they could do to down the Warriors as the Sailors left the friendly earth to take to the unfamiliar skies in besting Coyle 13-0. The rugged and swift ground attack, which had won Fairhaven fame throughout the season was ground to a halt by the superb play of a hard charging Warrior line. The Sailors were forced to take to the air to net their touchdowns, while thwarting Coyle drives were climaxed on the Fairhaven 35 and five yard lines. Both teams slugged out a grueling ground game and outside of Fairhaven's two touchdowns, the Sailors netted but 14 more yards than the Warriors. The longest run of the game was only 12 yards, which was a tribute to the crushing line play of the opposing forward walls. The Warriors lost little if any stature in absorbing their third loss of the campaign. The fans were now looking forward to the Durfee contest which had the underdog Warriors pitted against the County champions.

Durfee 0-6-0-6-12

One of the most bitter pills the Warriors had to swallow all season came on Armistice Day when the underdog Blue and Gold played their hearts out only to see a veteran, poised Durfee squad calmly capitalize on the breaks to edge the Warriors 12-0. The 4,000 fans who jammed Hopewell Park shouted themselves hoarse when, in the opening minutes of play, the Warriors drove to the Durfee six-yard line. But this opportunity was lost when the Hilltoppers recovered a Coyle fumble. A wobbly punt was taken on the Coyle 34, and seven plays later Bridge scored for Durfee. Chet Martin blocked a Durfee punt on the Durfee 14, caught the ball in mid-air and returned it to the 10-yard line; but from there the Warriors couldn't get started, and they lost their second golden opportunity. Salvo scored for Durfee in the final period, giving the Hilltoppers the decision 12-0.

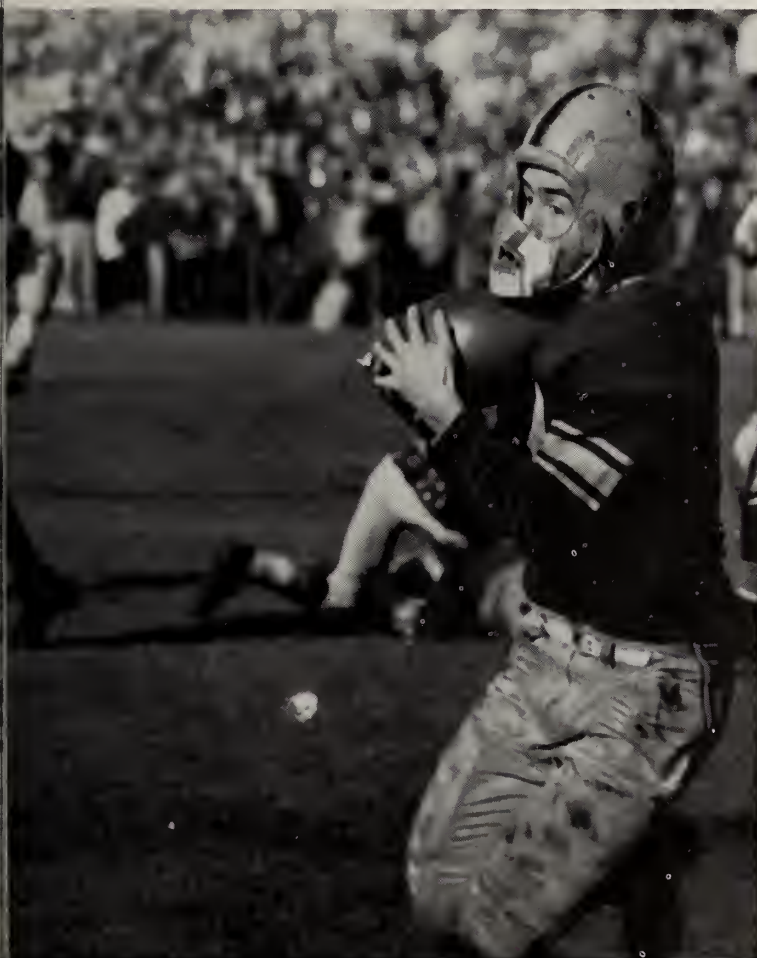

Coyle 6-0-7-0-12
Taunton 0-7-0-0-7

If ever there was a "dream" Coyle-Taunton game, this was it. Both teams had identical 4-4 records and both had particularly strong points, which made either team a favorite to only the most partisan fan. The Warriors had lost their last two contests prior to the Turkey Day clash, while Taunton had turned in two wins, one a giant killer feat over undefeated Somerset. The Warriors jumped to a quick lead in the first period. A 17-yard dash by Don Brezinski on the first play of the game, was the key play in the series, which moved the pigskin to the Taunton 10. On third down the Warriors scored for the first time in two games, when Freccero heaved to Daly, who sidestepped a Taunton would-be tackler at the five and went over for the score. Dick Galavotti tied up the contest in the second period when he raced 18 yards for a touchdown. Taunton went into the lead on a sucker pass for the extra point and led at the half by that one point margin. The Warriors, not to be beaten, charged onto the field after the half, full of fight and spirit and, five minutes later they were back in the lead. Freccero climaxed a 56-yard drive with a quarterback sneak for the winning score. The trailing Herringtownners battled grimly through the final 11 minutes of the game, but were completely out-hustled by the Warriors, who, when the final gun sounded, were looking for their third touchdown. This win gave the young Warrior footballers a five-four record for the season, an envious feat accomplished through hard work and rugged determination.

"When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" . . .

Tears and cheers and hugs and kisses and pats and slaps . . . "We did it" . . . part of the crowd of 4,700 who placed pigskin before turkey on Thanksgiving Day.

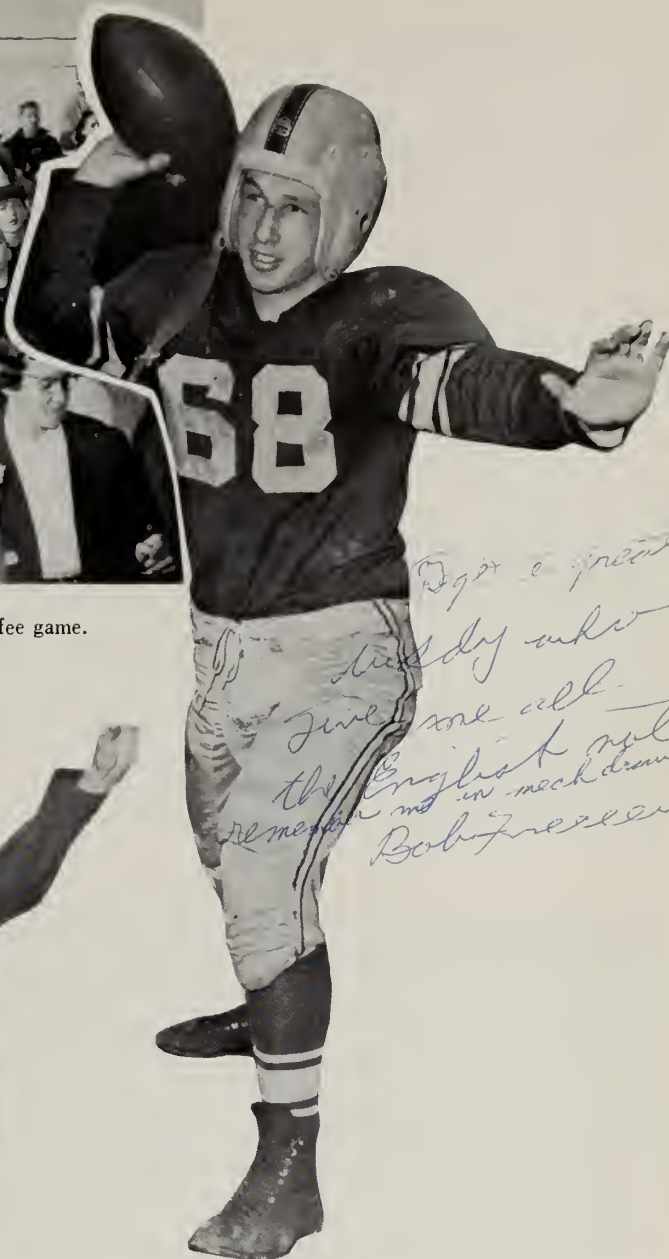

There goes that old flat pass for another first down . . . WOW!

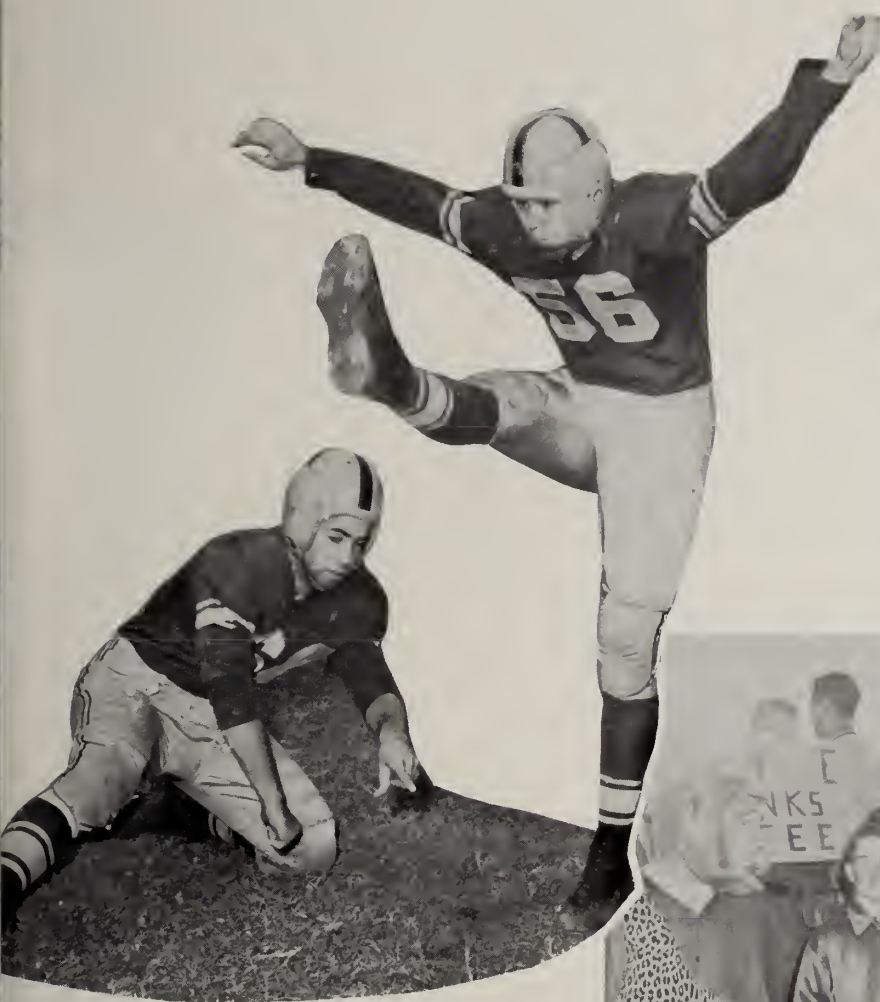

If wishing could have beaten Durfee . . .

"They ought to be able to score from there . . ." Worried faces at the Durfee game.

The 1956 Coyle Frosh turned in the best record of the four year existence of Frosh football here at Coyle as they came up with an undefeated and untied season. The Frosh showed an abundance of football talent in the rough which will undoubtedly be utilized in the future by the Coyle Varsity.

The Frosh opened their campaign by hosting North Attleboro and creaming the Red Rocketeers, 25-0. Ted McGovern scored all four T.D.'s with Leonard rushing the lone extra point.

Coyle picked up its second win with a 26-0 lacing of Somerset and once again McGovern tallied all Warrior touchdowns. Hoyer and Leonard rushed the extra points.

The game with the Dighton J.V.'s went right down to the wire with the Warriors winning again. Trailing by 12 late in the third period, the Frosh finally began to click and culminated their rally with the winning extra point rushed over by Leonard with one minute left to play in the game. McGovern scored all three touchdowns with Hoyer getting the other extra point.

Although crippled with injuries the Warriors overcame first half resistance by Taunton to dump their in-town rivals, 20-7. The Warrior scoring was highlighted by a last second, first half touchdown on a 36 yard Hoyer to Tom Gallagher pass. Scoring T.D.'s for Coyle were Phillippe, Gallagher and Hoyer with Leonard and Gallagher getting points after.

Bob Martin shifted to end with one minute left in the Randolph game and caught a 12 yard Hoyer pass to post the winning score as the Warriors took a seat-squirmers from Randolph, 12-6. Phillippe scored the other Warrior touchdown in the win which capped the undefeated season.

BASKETBALL

BASKETBALL BALLET

1956-57 was a poor basketball year for the Blue and Gold. The Warriors were hamstrung by a lack of tall men and consistent high point producers. Despite their weaknesses the Warriors battled hard in a league noted for fierce rivalries and high quality basketball. Undoubtedly, the two greatest games of the year for the Warriors were the first two games with in-town rival Taunton High. In the first contest the Herringtownners prevailed, edging the underdog Coyle quintet by a single point. In the return match however, the Warriors came up with the upset of the year, ending an eighteen game winless skein, with a 69-68 upending of the high flying Tauntonians.

That old Brooklyn battle cry "Wait'll next year" is hardly the case here at Coyle. Once again the lack of height stares Coyle right in the eye. The Warriors will be out after some high point men for next season . . . but . . . a really consistent high gun is not in sight at this time. Although we can look with much restraint as to the success of next year's varsity, we can be sure that County teams will have to beware of a team destined in all probability to be next year's "spoilers."

Coyle Frosh Trip Taunton Yearlings in Tourney

After getting off to a bad start, losing their first four, the Coyle Frosh came along fast to become one of the top yearling clubs in the county. The fast improved Warriors lost only one in their last 13 games. The high spot in the successful season proved to be the final game when the Coyle Frosh defeated the Taunton Frosh to win the Ninth Grade Basketball Tourney championship. Going into the final fray the Taunton club boasted a 15 and two record with three prior regular season decisions over the Warriors. The Warriors came through with the upset of the season, however, and claimed the trophy pictured above plus three spots on the All-Star Team. Another successful Freshman year thanks to the patient tutelage of Brother Quentin and Brother Joseph.

Coyle High's baseball Warriors, beating each opponent in at least one game last season, turned in a winning year, posting an eight and five record for the campaign. The Warriors took each county team once with the exception of Attleboro whom they dropped two times. They split a pair of games with powerful Brockton High and handed Somerset a defeat in the only game between the two nines.

The Warriors, in compiling a six and four League record, finished third in the Bristol County League behind Durfee and New Bedford Voke. Their overall record earned them the number four slot in the standings of County Class "A" teams.

Two of the biggest victories which the Warriors registered were those over New Bedford and Brockton, both return games after being beaten in the initial clashes. The Brockton game was won on a neat one-hitter by "Hook" Correia while the New Bedford game was clinched with a three-run homer by Frank Harrison in the bottom of the eleventh. The season ended on a happy note when the Coyle club drubbed Durfee High by seven runs in the wind-up game played at Alumni Field in Fall River.

A CENTENNIAL .

On May 13, some three thousand priests and Brothers of Holy Cross throughout the world celebrated a very significant event in the life of their beloved Congregation. For on that day, one hundred years ago, their order became of age, so to say.

Into the hands of their venerated founder, Father Basil Anthony Moreau, His Holiness Pope Pius IX, placed the official document that signified the final approbation of the Constitutions of the Congregation of Holy Cross. The tiny seedling that had begun life in Le Mans, France, in 1937, had received its final stamp of approval, raised to the dignity of a Pontifical Institute, directly under the supervision of the Holy See.

Today Moreau's priests and Brothers are following those Constitutions on five continents. In universities, seminaries, high schools, homes for boys and foreign missions in East Pakistan and South America; in parishes and in the apostolate of the press, they carry on the work of Holy Cross.

We join with the faculty in celebrating this historic event.

Brother Ralph Jaworski, C.S.C., former teacher and Principal at Coyle, The Very Reverend Christopher J. O'Toole, C.S.C., Superior General of the Congregation of Holy Cross, and Brother Eudes Hartnett, C.S.C., present Principal of Coyle.

The Priests and Brothers of Holy Cross go to Christ, the High Priest, through Mary, His Mother, and Joseph, His Foster-Father.

Holy Cross has spread devotion to Mary and Joseph "across the world" through Father Peyton, C.S.C.'s Family Rosary Crusade and Brother Andre, C.S.C.'s "Oratory."

"... From men ...

... for men ...

... for sacrifice ..."

The Brothers, who devote their lives to the education of young men, hope that the environment they maintain in their schools will be conducive to the fostering of vocations to the priesthood of Christ.

This year saw four more sons of Coyle ordained to the holy priesthood. Reverend Armando Annunziato, '49, whose picture we were unable to obtain, is still in Rome where he is completing studies at the North American College. May God inspire many more Coylemen to follow their example—and that of their many predecessors in the priesthood and religious life.

To the newly ordained alumni, our prayers and best wishes that God will give them many years of service to God and man.

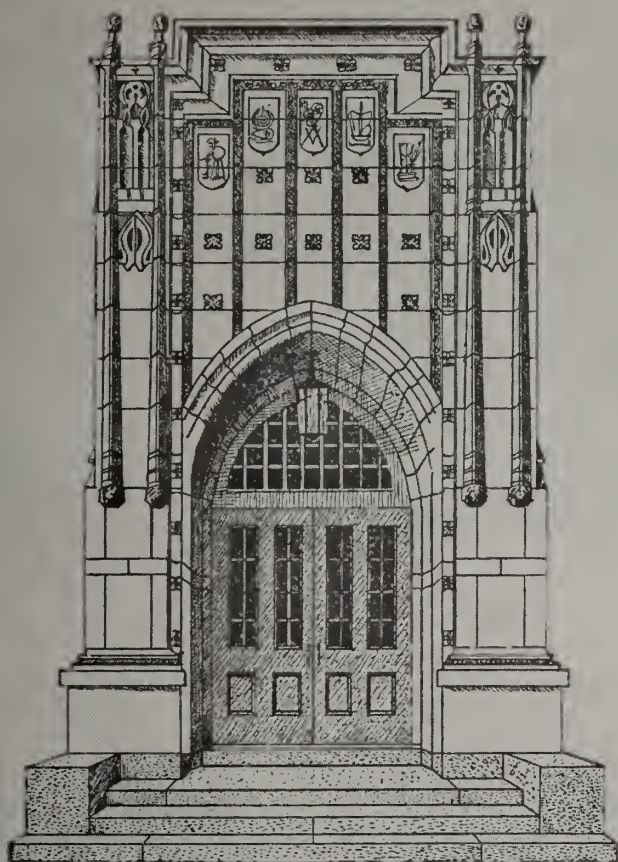

"There is no life in the world like it. No one deserves it. A lucky, lucky, few are prayed into it, or drawn into it by the miracles of God's great condescension."

'THESE PROCEEDINGS ARE CLOSED'

So said General MacArthur approximately twelve years ago on the deck of the "Mighty Mo."

So said the Editor of this '57 Review just a few minutes ago as he sent the last few remaining pages to the publisher.

This has been a tough old war, believe me. About eight months ago the Review Staff put on its collective thinking caps and began turning out the material which appears on the preceding pages. It has been months of long hours at hard work, and also, I might add, many problems. There were times when the situations seemed hopeless, but somehow they all seemed to turn out satisfactorily.

There is little time while working on the Review for the Staff to show their appreciation for the efforts of those who have made this book possible. At this time we wish to thank especially the following people:

Brother Eudes, our Principal, for his valuable advice and generous encouragement. Brother Richard O'Brien, C.S.C., our Advisor, for his guidance and assistance throughout the year.

The Faculty—Religious and Lay—for their cooperation.

Brother Albertus, C.S.C., for mimeographing announcements and special write-ups. The Coyle Mothers, who once again did so much to make the book a success. Their financial assistance took care—to a great deal—of printing costs.

Mr. Emmett Calvey, of the Taunton Daily Gazette, and Mr. Robert Calvey for supplying us with many pictures and allowing us the use of their files.

Mr. Thomas Galvin of the Taylor Yearbook Co. for his valuable advice and patient assistance.

Mrs. Patricia Corey, school secretary, for her patient cooperation in our bookkeeping problems.

The Staff of Loring Studios for their complete and helpful cooperation with us during the year.

The Taunton Daily Gazette for the use of their pictures.

Our patrons and advertisers, without whose financial help the Review would have been impossible to publish.

Our efficient and capable Yearbook Staff, especially David Burton and John Donahue, who gave generously of their time in putting out this Review.

Gratefully,
Armand J. Yelle

Have You Thought About THE BROTHERS OF HOLY CROSS?

Teachers of Youth . . . on All Levels of Education . . .

Foreign Missionaries . . . Skilled Tradesmen . . . Office Personnel . . .

"Going, Therefore, Teach . . ."

The brothers labor in twenty diocese in the United States, and their educational work extends from grammar school to university. Though all Brothers share in the educational apostolate, about one-third of them are in occupations other than teaching.

A young man who knows something about the life and work of the Holy Cross Brothers, and who has the desire and qualifications to serve God as they do, can presume that he has a vocation to that state of life.

Brothers of Holy Cross, Eastern Vice-Province

THE COYLE MAN

The Coyle man is an exemplar of the Christian concept of life. Primarily concerned with his soul's welfare, he is a man of prayer. He attends the Sacraments weekly, practices virtue daily, and has a manly piety which exercises itself mainly toward the Blessed Sacrament and Our Lady. Catholic Action is prominent in his life, which achieves its greatest good through example, for the Coyle man is clean in mind, speech, and action.

Intellectual honesty is practiced by the Coyle man, for his whole life is guided by principle. He strives to penetrate, as far as he can, the Truth that is God, for he recognizes the fact that love of God comes with knowledge of Him. All his study is devoted to this seeking after Truth and to a preparation for the niche he is to occupy in life according to the Eternal Plan.

Since man is composed of soul and body, the Coyle man takes proper care of his body, for God has given it to him. He keeps his body clean and engages in some sport or exercise to maintain good health and train himself in the qualities of good sportsmanship.

Socially the Coyle man is always a gentleman. He cultivates genuine friendships with good companions. He is a worthwhile citizen who strives to promote the common good by serving his God, his country and his community.

In a word, a man of faith and honesty, of strength of character through self-mastery, of respect for the Christian family and lawful authority, of leadership in the pursuit of good . . . that is a Coyle man.
